POLICIES FOR IN PERSON CLASSES—Illness and COVID-19

Colorado Free University, Inc. is complying with CDC guidelines and local orders to maximize the safety of students and instructors attending classes. Please follow these guidelines:

1. Do not attend class if presenting with any symptoms of illness, including but not limited to fever, cough, sore throat, or difficulty breathing.
2. Generally masks are not required in class, but there are exceptions. Some classes do require masks. This is noted on your email confirmation. If your instructor asks that students be masked, respect that request.
3. If you have recently been exposed to the virus, but do not currently have symptoms, you must wear a mask throughout class and maintain distance from others.
4. Be kind to those who choose to wear a mask, whether or not it is required in your class.
5. Maintain a distance of at least 3 feet from others throughout class. Wash your hands and/or use hand-sanitizer.

While we are making every effort to keep our classes safe, Colorado Free University, Inc. cannot guarantee that we can prevent you from becoming exposed to illness while attending classes. Attendance to an in person class implies that you accept the risk of contracting COVID-19 or other airborne illnesses and that you agree not hold Colorado Free University or the instructor liable for any potential illness.

I have read and understood the above information. I agree to abide by the guidelines listed above and will do my part to maintain safety for myself and others in class. I hereby acknowledge that I accept the risks of attending an in person class at Colorado University. I will hold Colorado Free University, Inc. and the instructor harmless for any illness or transmission of the virus.
